

Monday, September 25

Faculty Artist Series 2: Bossa Rio Sextet

7:30 p.m., Ruth Lilly Performance Hall,
Christel DeHaan Fine Arts Center
Free

University of Indianapolis Director of Jazz Studies Harry Miedema heads an all-star cast in music of Brazilian composers Antonio Carlos Jobim, Moacir Santos, Joao Donato, and Vinicius de Moraes. Contact the Fine Arts Center box office for ticket information (317-788-2135, arts@uindy.edu).

Wednesday, September 27

UIndy Graduate School Fair

11 a.m.–7 p.m., Schwitzer Student Center Atrium
Free parking by Key Stadium

Are you pondering an advanced degree but don't know where to start? Why not at your alma mater? Stop by the Graduate School Fair and discover the 21 postgraduate programs. Ask about course requirements, required tests, application deadlines, and scholarship opportunities. This event is open to current UIndy students, alumni, and the public. University of Indianapolis graduate programs include: applied sociology, art, business administration, clinical psychology, curriculum and instruction, educational leadership, English, family nursing, gerontological nurse practitioner, gerontology, history, human biology, international relations, master of arts in teaching, mental health counseling, nurse-midwifery, nursing administration, nursing administration/MBA, nursing education, occupational therapy, and physical therapy. Contact Anne Hardwick (ahardwick@uindy.edu, 317-788-3495) for more information.

Thursday, September 28

Soccer doubleheader vs. St. Joseph's College

Men's match at 5 p.m.; women's match at 7:30 p.m.
Key Stadium
Fees: adults $6, child $4 (purchase tickets at the gate)

For more information, contact Greyhound Athletics at (317) 788-3359.

Friday, September 29

Jamey Aebersold—Jazz Great!

7:30 p.m., Ruth Lilly Performance Hall,
Christel DeHaan Fine Arts Center
General admission: $10; students and seniors: $8

Jamey Aebersold is an internationally known saxophonist and authority on jazz education and improvisation. He designed a series of internationally popular play-along books, recordings, and workshops using the world's best jazz musicians. He earned a master's degree in saxophone in 1962 from Indiana University and in 1992 was awarded an honorary doctorate of music from his alma mater. Jamey was inducted into the International Association of Jazz Educators Hall of Fame, joining the ranks of fellow jazz luminaries such as Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, and Louis Armstrong. For ticket information, contact the Fine Arts Center box office at (317) 788-2135, arts@uindy.edu.

Volleyball vs. Wisconsin-Parkside

7 p.m., Ruth Lilly Fitness Center

Fees: adults $6, child $4 (purchase tickets at the match)

The Hounds have a five-game winning streak against the Rangers. Come see one of the most exciting volleyball teams in the GLVC! For more information, contact Greyhound Athletics at (317) 788-3359.

Late Night Student Event: 'It's Tiki Time'

Schwitzer Center Atrium
8 p.m.–midnight

A fun-filled evening of interactive events and food, sponsored by the Campus Program Board, is just the ticket to rev up students' Homecoming spirit.

Saturday, September 30

Volleyball vs. Lewis

3 p.m., Ruth Lilly Fitness Center
Fees: adults $6, child $4 (purchase tickets at the match)

University of Indianapolis head volleyball coach Jody Butera leads the Hounds as they take on Lewis in GLVC action. For more information, contact Greyhound Athletics at (317) 788-3359.

Communication Alumni Open House

1:30–3:30 p.m.
Esch Hall, 2nd floor
Free; preregistration is requested

You might remember the Department of Communication's former headquarters in the Sease Wing of the Krannert Memorial Library. Before that, you might have paid your dues at old Buxton Hall, writing for the Reflector, broadcasting on the airwaves of WICR, or honing your verbal communication skills for the award-winning speech team. Now, the department calls the new and improved Esch Hall its home. And what a new home it is! Stop by to meet your former professors, reconnect with classmates, and tour the state-of-the-art facilities, home to one of the fastest-growing academic areas on campus. Light refreshments will be served. So that we may plan for you, RSVP to Roberta Thompson at (317) 788-3280 or rthompson@uindy.edu.

Homecoming Extravaganza

Philosophy/Religion Alumni Discussion Group: Early Christianities

Schwitzer Conference Center, Room 004

1:30–3:30 p.m.

Free, preregistration is requested

Dr. Perry Kea, chair of the Philosophy and Religion Department, facilitates a lively discussion titled “Early Christianities.” Come to explore and discuss the diversity of Christianity in its first couple of centuries and the data known on this topic. This session promises to be an engaging dialogue appealing to grads and students alike. Philosophy/Religion graduates and Philosophy Club members may be especially interested. To register, contact the Office of Alumni Relations at (317) 788-3295, alumni@uindy.edu. For more information about the discussion topic, contact the Philosophy and Religion Department at (317) 788-3452 or 1-800-232-8634.

Richard E. Stierwalt Alumni House Hospitality

12:30–3:30 p.m.

Do you remember where old Buxton Hall was? You’ll now find in its place the beautiful Stierwalt Alumni House, built in 2000 with you in mind. In between the many events on campus, plan to stop by to tour the facility and reconnect with old friends. Refreshments will be available.

Alumni Association Board of Directors Meeting

Richard E. Stierwalt Alumni House

1:30–3:30 p.m.

Contact the Office of Alumni Relations if you wish to attend this open meeting.

Homecoming H. H. Gregg Fun Zone and OneAmerica Street Party

Outdoor pavilion tent, east of Schwitzer Student Center

3:30–5:30 p.m.

Picnic and game tickets available in advance via Alumni Central or on-site. Pick up tickets at the Alumni Association registration area at the Street Party

Football game tickets: adults $6, child, $4

Picnic tickets: adults $10, child $5

Picnic/game combo ticket: adults $15, child $8

Football game tickets can be purchased at Key Stadium.

Back by popular demand is the Homecoming Fun Zone and Street Party Pregame Homecoming Picnic. The Fun Zone is fun for all ages and consists of such games as a football toss, giant slide, Velcro Olympics, bungee run, music with a DJ, raffle, and other prizes!

There’s plenty of fun and food leading up to the University of Indianapolis Greyhound Homecoming football game versus Findlay at 6 p.m.

Greyhound Football vs. Findlay

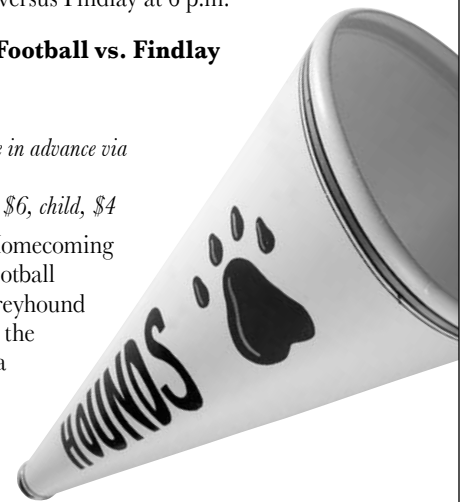

6 p.m. kick-off

Key Stadium

Tickets available in advance via Alumni Central or on site: adults $6, child, $4

What would Homecoming be without a football game and a Greyhound victory? Cheer the Hounds on to a win under the stadium lights, and join us at halftime for the crowning of the UIndy Homecoming King and Queen Court. Alumni, stop by the Alumni Association hospitality tent inside Key Stadium to reconnect with your classmates and get your Homecoming gift!

Postgame Celebration

9:30 p.m.–midnight

Holiday Inn Indianapolis Southeast

5120 Victory Dr, Indianapolis at I-465 & Emerson Avenue

Free; Preregistration is requested

Meet with friends and former classmates after the game to celebrate a Greyhound victory and continue your weekend of catching up with old friends. Cash bar and light snacks provided.

Overnight accommodations

Holiday Inn Indianapolis Southeast

5120 Victory Dr, Indianapolis at I-465 & Emerson Avenue

$55 single/double UIndy group discount

Call (317) 783-7751, 1-888-465-4329 for reservations