CAMP DIRECTOR

Jody Butera is entering her 12th season as a UIndy volleyball coach after a very successful decade at the University. Butera finished 2007 with 33 victories, a national ranking, 25 straight wins and an NCAA tournament victory. These are just some of the firsts the UIndy volleyball team and Head Coach Jody Butera accomplished in 2007. Coach Butera, who went 18-1 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) last season, has strung together nine straight twenty-win seasons on her way to 257 wins at UIndy, the most by a head coach in program history.

Head coaching highlights:

- The Hounds won a school record 25 straight matches on the way to a 33-4 season in 2007. UIndy finished runner-up in the GLVC before recording the program's first NCAA win with a victory against ninth-ranked Hillsdale in the Great Lakes Regional. The Greyhounds' .892 winning percentage set a new program benchmark.
- Butera guided the Greyhounds to their fifth straight trip to the conference tournament semifinals in 2006 by defeating division rival Northern Kentucky for the third time. The Hounds finished with 24 wins against just 10 losses.
- In 2005, Butera earned career win number 200 by knocking off #1 seed Rockhurst in GLVC semifinals while posting a 24-14 overall record.
- Her 2004 team recorded a 23-13 mark, winning 10 straight matches at one point, including winning 26 straight games during that stretch.
- Butera's 2003 squad earned the school's first NCAA Tournament berth by winning the GLVC tournament for the first time. The Hounds took eventual Great Lakes Regional champ Grand Valley State to five games in the NCAA Tournament while winning a then-school record 29 matches.
